

A moment to cherish, says badminton gold winner Pramod

Bethell 21-14, 21-17 in the summit clash. Another Indian, Manoj

Tokyo, Sept 5: It was a "moment to cherish" for Pramod Bhagat who on Saturday clinched India's first badminton gold in Paralympics and he attributed his win against Great Britain's Daniel Bethell in the final to a strategy that he devised after losing to the same opponent in the past.

Reigning world champion Bhagat beat

Avani to be flag bearer at closing

Shooter Avani Lekhara will be the flag bearer of country's contingent during the closing ceremony of the Tokyo Paralympics, here on Sunday.

The 19-year-old trailblazer Avani had won a gold in R-2 women's 10m Air Rifle Standing SH1 event on Monday before claiming the 50m Rifle 3 Position SH1 bronze on Friday.

"Avani will be the flag bearer and there will be 11 participants from the Indian contingent during the closing ceremony," an official of the Paralympic Committee of India (PCI) said. Shotputter Tek Chand was India's flag-bearer for the Paralympics opening ceremony on August 24 after he replaced high jumper Mariyappan Thangavelu in the last minute.

Mariyappan, who won a silver here, was quarantined along with five other Indians after coming in close contact of a COVID positive person during his flight to Tokyo.

medal for India is a moment to cherish for me," said 33-year-old from Odisha.

Pramod, who had contracted polio when he was 4 years old, thus avenged his loss to Bethell at the Japan Para Badminton International in November 2019.

"I played the same opponent in Japan two years ago and I lost. That was a learning opportunity for me.

"Today it was the same stadium and the same environment, and I devised a strategy to win. I was very determined." On his strategy, Bhagat said, I just focused on playing the shuttle on each and every point rather than on winning the whole game. Every point was precious." Pramod and his partner Palak Kohli, however, lost the mixed doubles semifinals 3-21, 15-21 to the Indonesian combination of Hary Susanto and Leani Ratri Oktilla earlier in the day.

"This is a very proud moment for me. I'm representing the Indian badminton community and India as a whole," Bhagat said after winning the gold.

"This is the first time that para badminton is appearing in the Paralympics and winning the first gold

Djokovic recovers from one set down to end Nishikori's run

New York, Sept 5: Novak Djokovic did not seek to keep his thoughts to himself on court, the way he mostly did through his first two US Open matches. Instead, he let it all out, slapping his chest or sneering with a fist raised to celebrate success, pointing to his ear to ask the crowd for noise.

Taking another step in his bid to complete the first calendar-year Slam by a man in more than a half-century, Djokovic moved into the fourth round at Flushing Meadows for the 14th consecutive appearance, coming back to beat Kei Nishikori 6-7 (4), 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 on Saturday.

I don't plan to have those kind of emotional moments on the court, whether good or bad. It just happens, Djokovic said.

In the heat of the battle, when you feel like the moment is very important ... you just want to get those things out of yourself, out of your system try to, I guess, ride on that energy wave that you create, whether it's with yourself, whether it's with the crowd.

Djokovic, a 34-year-old from Serbia who is ranked No. 1, is now 24-0 in the sport's four most important events this season, having won the Australian Open in February, the French Open in June and Wimbledon in July. The last man to go 4 for 4 at the majors was Rod Laver in 1969; Steffi Graf was the last woman, in 1988.

Win four more matches next week, and Djokovic also would earn his 21st career Slam trophy, breaking the men's mark he currently shares with Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal.

I would not be honest fully if I told you I don't think or I don't believe or I don't visualise that I can win every single Grand Slam that I play in, Djokovic said.

It was in the fourth round last year that Djokovic's US Open ended, defaulted late in the first set for hitting a ball after ceding a game and inadvertently hitting a line judge in the throat.

Other players advancing on a sunny Saturday included Wimbledon runner-up Matteo Berrettini and No. 13 Jannik Sinner. They gave Italy a pair of men in the U.S. Open's fourth round for the first time in the event's 140-year history along with Olympic women's gold medalist Belinda Bencic, 2019 US Open champion Bianca Andreescu, 2020 French Open champion Iga Swiatek, two-time major finalist Karolina Pliskova and 18-year-old Emma Raducanu of Britain.

Sania & Rajeev crash out of US Open mixed doubles

New York, Sept 5: The Indo-American pair of Sania Mirza and Rajeev Ram made a first round exit from the US Open mixed doubles event after losing to Dayana Yastremska from Ukraine and Australia's Max Purcell, here.

The unseeded Mirza and Ram lost 3-6, 6-3, 7-10 to their opponents in just 61 minutes on Friday night.

Sania and Rajeev could convert only one of the three break chances that came their way while the winners converted the only breakpoint they got in the match.

With this defeat, Sania's campaign folded at the last Grand Slam of the season as she had already crashed out of the women's doubles event after losing the first round with American partner Coco Vandeweghe.

India's Rohan Bopanna is still alive in the competition. Bopanna and his Croatian partner Ivan Dodig are scheduled to play their men's doubles second round against Hugo Nys from Monaco and Arthur Rinderknech from France.

Mariyappan felicitated

New Delhi, Sept 5: Sports Minister Anurag Thakur on Saturday felicitated Tokyo Paralympics silver medallist high jumper Mariyappan Thangavelu, who was disappointed at not winning a gold.

Mariyappan, who won a gold in 2016 Rio Paralympics, bagged a silver this time around in T42 category with a best jump of 1.86m. Another Indian, Sharad Kumar took the bronze with a best jump of 1.83m.

"Mariyappan has made the country proud with his performance in Rio and now in Tokyo. I congratulate him and take this occasion to congratulate all our para athletes for their fantastic performance," Thakur said in a statement.

Mariyappan, on his part, said: "I had expected to win a gold for India but due to the weather conditions on the day of the event, I could not fulfil that dream. I am confident that in Paris I will win a gold for the country again." The T42 classification is for athletes with a leg deficiency, leg length difference, impaired muscle power or impaired passive range of movement in the legs. The athletes compete in a standing position.

The Watch, Thrown on the Floor..!

The watch on the floor looked broken. I had seen it being flung to the ground. It had taken but a moment, for the little child to take the watch from me and in one remorseless fling had thrown it into the air and I had watched it crash to the ground.

The mother of the child was apologetic, "I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry!" she said.

"It's okay!" I said, and knew that some message was about to come from that watch that had been so brutally flung in the air, and just as I picked it up, the thought came to me. The child had looked around for something to play with, and thinking that the ticking of the watch would keep it occupied, thinking that the gold colour would fascinate it, I had offered the child the watch, and then had watched shocked as the little one had flung it to the ground, and then in the next moment had picked up an empty tin can with one peppermint in it and was now fascinated with the rattling noise!

"What's the thought God?" I ask. "The gold watches I give you Bob: Of life, good health, of a happy family, of knowing without an iota of doubt that I stand behind you and what do you do?"

"I throw it all away when I want an empty tin with a cheap peppermint in it" I say, as I think of the numerous peppermints I'd asked God for; a bigger car, a fancier house, a bigger bank balance!

I watch as God picks up golden watches I'd thrown down to the ground; a medical report that was pretty good, legs that could still carry me around without a walking stick to help, eyes that needed glasses only to read and many more things that He continues giving me, and most important: The knowledge that my eternity is going to be with Him because of His death on the cross!

With tears in my eyes I pick up the watch from the floor and realize it's not broken. I carefully put it on my wrist and tell myself it will be a reminder of all the golden offerings my Lord has made for me. I look at the child playing with the tin which has a peppermint inside and smile, just as the little fellow stretches out his hand and makes me strap the watch to his tiny wrist.

"Ah little fellow!" I say, "Do you know what you just did? You, like me just realized the value of what we normally fling away, forgetting to give a word of thanks to the One above..!"

Chennaiyin ropes in Hungarian Koman on season-long deal

Chennai, Sept 5: Two-time Indian Super League (ISL) champion Chennaiyin FC on Saturday announced the signing of Hungarian midfielder Vladimir Koman on a season-long deal.

The Hungarian international is the club's sixth and final foreign signing. I'm happy to join Chennaiyin, because it's a completely new atmosphere for me and a new experience. I would like to do my best to help the team to be successful and make the fans proud and happy, he was quoted as saying in a release here.

Koman made his senior national team debut for Hungary in 2010 and went on to play 36 matches, netting seven goals. He was a vital cog in the country's third-place finish in the 2009 FIFA U-20 World Cup and emerged as the second highest scorer with five goals.

He also guided the U-19 Hungarian side to the semi-finals at the 2008 UEFA European Championship.

CFC co-owner Vita Dani said, Vladimir is the perfect end to our foreign signings. He's an experienced player who has represented Hungary and turned out in top leagues." The Ukraine-born footballer began his professional career in 2006 with UC Sampdoria in the top-tier Italian league, Serie A. In a career spanning over 15 years, the attacking midfielder has 300-plus club appearances, including 22 goals and 23 assists, to his name.

The experienced Koman has also played in the Asian countries such as Iran and United Arab Emirates and is now set for his maiden ISL campaign.

His presence is expected to bolster the CFC's squad ahead of the upcoming season. Rafael Crivellaro, Mirlan Murzaev, Slavko Damjanovic, Ariel Borysiuk and Lukasz Gikiewicz are the club's other international signings.

Anything to say about Vladimir is superfluous. His career says it all about him as a player and as a character, CFC head coach Bozidar Bandovic said.
